

Pholc

Champagne Table

Conversations between visionaries in design often result in brilliant products. Such is the case with Monika Mulder's Champagne Table. Designed for Pholc, whose owner was visiting Mulder's studio one day, the pendant's profile was born quickly from a sketch created by the product designer. "I suggested we should work on a little fixture that is both contemporary and easy to understand," Mulder notes. "The computer was on so I quickly drew a shape to make myself clearer, and there it was: Champagne was born." Made of metal, the cuplike shade comes in chrome, matte gold and shiny gold finishes.
