

Jacco Maris

Ode 1647 2-Light Wall

Design by: Jacco Maris

Being an homage to 17th-century chandeliers, it serves as a lyrical reference to those graceful forms while placing itself squarely in the 21st-century due to the material it's made of. The high-pressure hose curling into 2-light configuration is the same component you would find in the engines of high-performance racecars or the hydraulic systems of elevator shafts. Sealed for color conformity and longevity, its arching arms are topped with velveteen shades in a variety of colors.
