Life Dome Pendant

Remember those perfectly aged pair of jeans worn to the point of supple softness and edgy pride? That pretty much sums up the Life Dome pendant. Designed by Matteo Ugolini, this version of Life is a dome-shaped shade with scalloped edges. A bit of color is added to white denim into which a pattern is cut with a laser—seemingly at random, though this is far from the case. The fabric is then stonewashed to add that feel of near mystical chic that made those jeans (and this fixture) look better and better over time.
